

TO BEAT THE H. C. I.

Palmer Maps Out Program of Department of Justice

MEET IN CHICAGO

Over 400 City Officials, Heads of Civic Organizations and Club Women of Illinois Attend the Conference

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—Attorney General A. Mitchell Palmer mapped out the program of the department of justice to bring down the cost of living at a meeting of 400 city officials, heads of civic organizations and club women of Illinois. The meeting was called by Governor Lowden.

Pledging the full power of his department in the prosecution of hoarders and profiteers, Mr. Palmer called for the assistance of every man and woman in the country for a national fight against high prices.

Explaining the plan whereby fair price committees in every community become agents of federal government enforcing its decrees, Mr. Palmer laid down a program of five things which he said would do much to lower prices.

1. Organization of fair price committees in every city and county, backed by mayors and prosecuting attorneys with the committees supporting the United States district attorneys.

2. Organization of women to refuse to buy anything but actual necessities until prices come down.

3. Holding of "conservation and economy" meetings in every community.

4. Influence of mayors and prosecutors to be brought to bear on the warring elements to prevent factional disturbances in industry, and particularly to bring about an industrial peace of at least six months duration.

5. Remobilization of the four minute men to deliver "work and save" addresses.

"Despite all objections and obstacles I purpose to go thru with this campaign," Mr. Palmer told the delegates. "If industrial conditions do not get too bad in the next few months, we can bring real relief."

Last to Obtain Relief

The wage earners were the class in that their income as a rule had kept pace with the rapidly mounting cost of living, Mr. Palmer added. A salaried worker was the man who had felt the full brunt of higher costs because he has been the last to obtain relief.

The chief cause of the high cost of living, he pointed out, was decreased production incident to the war inflated currency due to government borrowings on heavy taxes, which he charged were passed on by business men to the consumer.

"In every line of trade there have been selfish and greedy men who have taken advantage of the after-war conditions to add a bit to their profits," Mr. Palmer said. "Such men are the profiteers and I purpose to devote all the power at my command to root them out and expose them to public scorn and if necessary in public prisons. The profiteers are worse than unrepentant; they are criminals."

"I know the state's attorney of Illinois to go after those devils with all the force you command."

Activities of the department of justice, he said, had already uncovered 219 cases against food hoarders who had resulted in the libeling and distribution of libelous statements of millions of dollars worth of food.

Ninety eight cases had been brought against profiteers, many of whom were indicted and some who were serving sentences.

The campaign was to continue, the attorney general declared, with one purpose, prices must go down.

"I am not worried over hurting the retail dealers," he added. "They have their harvest time and now the people are to get a look in. The finest weapon in this campaign is knowledge. Let the people know the facts and they will take care of the rest."

Would Stop Profiteering.

Mr. Palmer described the effort he is making to get congress to continue operation of the Lever food control act for six months after the declaration of peace and to pass a law requiring the price at which an article leaves the producer to be stamped on the article.

"If we can get that law we will stop profiteering," he said, "when you go to the shoe store if you see plainly stamped on a pair of shoes the wholesale price of $4.50, you aren't going to pay $18 for those shoes. I know of a great department store in one of our cities where the sale price on goods has no relation to the cost. They advertise a special sale and when the people come running because they think they are going to get something cheap, the price is marked up because the demand is greater."

"An organization of women organized as they never were before will do more to bring down prices than any single movement. Their power is incalculable. They buy 90 per cent of the food and wearing apparel for the country. And when women make up their minds they will not buy at present prices then prices will come down. Women should set their faces against these expensive and ever changing

LOSS TO U. S. THRU RECENT COAL STRIKE

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 16.—Loss to the United States on account of the recent coal strike amounted to approximately $126,000,000, according to W. D. McKinney, secretary of the Southern Ohio Coal Exchange. Additional loss to railroads, and to industries forced to curtailment could not be estimated and no allowance therefore is made in the estimate. The miners were the greatest losers in the strike. Mr. McKinney's figures showed. Sixty million dollars was his estimate of their losses in wages. The loss to the railroads he placed at $40,000,000, while the farmers figure he set at $26,000,000. At the beginning of the strike the production was already forty million tons short of normal, Mr. McKinney stated.

AGAINST RADICALS

Bill Designed to Rid Country of Alien Radicals

PRESENTED TO HOUSE

Measure is So Drawn as to Force Department of Labor to Act Against All Alien Agitators

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Proposals of the house immigration committee designed to rid the country of alien radicals and framed after prolonged hearings here and in New York were presented to the house today by Chairman Johnson, Republican, Washington. He said the bill was so drawn as to force the department of labor to act against alien agitators.

Secretary Wilson has held Mr. Johnson said, that mere membership in the I. W. W., or kindred organizations was not sufficient under the law to warrant deportation. The committee's bill, he added made the "letter and intent of the law plain and unmistakable," as under its affiliation or any financial connection with organizations teaching radical relations, even without the commission of an overt act, meant deportation.

At the same time, the house judiciary committee began work on various proposals aimed at suppression of radical activities by citizens as well as aliens.

Representative Blanton, Democrat, Texas, said the department of labor was "honeycombed" with "the spirit of anarchism," from Secretary Wilson down and Representative Davey, Democrat, Ohio warned the committee that the public would take matters into its own hand and "string these wild-eyed radicals to telephone poles," unless congress acts.

Under a resolution introduced by Senator Kenyon, Republican, Iowa, the senate foreign relations committee would investigate the activities of Ludwig C. A. K. Martens, who claims to be the self-styled Russian soviet ambassador with headquarters in New York. The resolution said Martens had been charged with directing propaganda against the American government.

WILL SHIP KENTUCKY WHISKEY TO CUBA

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Dec. 16.—A way out apparently has been found for distillers' caught with large stocks of liquors in the supreme court's decision holding war time prohibition constitutional.

A plan was presented to distillers here today by representatives of steamship lines operating out of Charleston, Brunswick, Savannah and Wilmington to Cuba, South America and Europe.

It contemplated the shipment of liquor estimated at 39,000,000 gallons in Kentucky bonded warehouses, largely to Cuba for storage, and subsequent resale to other foreign countries.

Adds to the Gloom

Chicago, Dec. 16.—Attorney General Brundage of Illinois added to the gloom distilled for liquor dealers by prohibition legislation and the supreme court's decision upholding it yesterday. He announced that the Illinois Search and Seizure Act, which prohibits transportation of the contraband alcoholic beverages, forbade carrying flasks and persons could not therefore not remove part of their private stock for holiday celebrations to hotels or elsewhere.

The only way liquor can be carried outside the home without violating the law according to Mr. Brundage is within the body.

MILLIONAIRE OFFICER ATTEMPTS SUICIDE

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The life of Captain Clarence Wiener, millionaire and former officer in the American and British armies who attempted suicide by shooting last night hung in the balance this morning. At the hospital it was stated he had regained consciousness but that his condition was "very grave."

OFFICIAL COLOR

Washington, Dec. 16.—Forest Green was made the official color of the American Red Cross field uniforms in an order issued by Secretary Baker today.

CALLS ON CONGRESS

For Legislation Giving Ex-Service Men Consideration

WARNS FALSE ECONOMY

Legion Commander Issues Warning in Regard to Any Policy of False Economy With Respect to Disabled Soldiers

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—The American Legion thru Franklin D'Olier, its grand commander, tonight called on congress for immediate enactment of legislation giving former service men the consideration they deserve at the hands of their government.

Mr. D'Olier in a formal statement warned that no policy of false economy should be pursued now with respect to the disabled war men if serious difficulties are to be avoided later by the government.

Principles upon which the present government insurance laws are founded, were described by Mr. D'Olier as "entirely sound" but the existing legislation entirely inadequate. He added that as a result of informal conferences today between members of congress and delegates to the convention, it was evident that "congress is not yet alive to the necessities of the situation."

Scores Vocational Methods.

Grievances of former service men against the government's vocational training methods were laid before the American legion conference here today by Cornelius Wickersham of New York who demanded that "definite and concrete action be taken to relieve the situation."

Fewer than 35,000 of 180,000 partially disabled ex-service men have been able to derive benefits under the present vocational training laws, Mr. Wickersham said. He submitted statements of men now in training, that they were receiving their maintenance fees irregularly and in most cases none at all. One of the reasons for men entitled to the training could not take advantage of it.

"From the information I have," Mr. Wickersham said, "it appears that the whole thing is badly managed."

"To me it seems there is a lack of interest on the part of those directing the work. No attention seems to have been paid to the natural ability of the individual. They try to make a good basket weaver out of a man whose natural bent is toward electrical work."

Mr. Wickersham said the vocational inspectors and advisers should be chosen from the ranks of the service men.

REFUSES TO ANSWER RANSOM QUESTION

Hugo Simply Asserts He Had no Reason to Complain.

Eagle Pass, Texas, Dec. 15.—Flatly refusing to answer the direct question as to whether ransom had been paid for his release, Fred C. Hugo, the American ranchman abducted last week by Francisco Villa and held for $10,000 ransom, said today he had no reason to complain. He said he would return in a few days to the J. M. Dodie Ranch in Coahuila of which he is manager.

Hugo said he was liberated on the promise not to state where he was taken nor the conditions of his liberation and he proposed to keep his promise. Villa invited him to "come down and have Christmas dinner with him," Hugo said.

Villa's ambition, Mr. Hugo said, was to establish a new civil government in Mexico and not a military one.

BELIEVE FURTHER HEARINGS IMPROBABLE

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Further hearings by the senate agriculture committee on the Kenyon-Kendrick bills for governmental regulation of the packing industry were believed improbable today by those who had been in view of authoritative reports today that neither the "Big Five" meat packers nor proponents of the legislation would ask that additional witnesses be called.

Chairman Gronna of the committee yesterday sent telegrams to the packers offering to re-open the hearings January 5, but from other sources it was learned that the packers do not plan to accept the invitation.

Chairman Gronna and Senator Kenyon, Republican, Iowa, have announced that if the packers do not wish to appear the hearings would be closed.

MRS. BLAKE ABANDONS STORY OF KIDNAPPING

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Dec. 16.—Mrs. Esther Miller Blake, a prisoner in the city hospital charged with the murder of her five year old son, has abandoned her story that the child was kidnapped by two negroes in Ventnor last Friday night according to L. R. Souder, county physician. She told the doctor today that the kidnapping story was a delusion.

"I have had delusions before and I guess I had one this time," Mrs. Blake remarked to me," said Dr. Souder.

Mrs. Blake still denies that she threw the child into the ocean, Dr. Souder said.

TREMENDOUS DEMAND FOR MUSKRAT SKINS

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—The tremendous demand for the skin of the humble muskrat, "Hudson seal" when it appears as a coat or muff has won it high rank in the indictment against the high cost of living, according to a statement tonight by the New York fur auction corporation.

The statement said that Michigan and eastern rat skins are being sold at $3.75 each as compared with 55 and 60 cents in 1915 and that the Western Canadian variety brings $2.60 as against 30 cents formerly.

"FLYING PARSON" DECLARES STATEMENT WAS "JUGGLED"

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Lieut. Belvin W. Maynard, the "flying parson," declared tonight that his statement concerning the effects of alcoholic liquors on aviators, which was issued thru the Anti-Saloon League, had been "juggled" until it had left a false impression and had erroneously attributed his remarks as applying to aviators participating in this trans-continental reliability test. His statement follows:

"I feel it is due to the memory of the wonderful men who gave their lives in the cause of aviation development in the recent trans-continental air race, to clear up the horrible and miserable repression that has gotten about thru the juggling of my statement to the Anti-Saloon League with respect to the effect of intoxicating liquors on flyers generally. My statement was made in good faith to the anti-Saloon League at their earnest solicitation and they, robbing it of its opening paragraph, and in giving it the misleading caption 'Booze Knocked Out Trans-Continental Flyers' have, with the aid of the press, succeeded in doing me the most serious injustice I have ever undergone and have done the trans-continental flyers of the race and to the air service as a whole, an more serious injustice."

"Such statements that 'large number of the casualties in the race were caused by flying with hang-overs and being drunk, are absolutely false and without foundation, and were manipulated to create a sensation. The very fact I was very fortunate by intervention of good weather in my favor to be constantly a few miles ahead of the rest of the flyers in evidence in itself that I could not have based my opinion to the effect of alcohol on flying from my observation of flyers in the race. Indeed, several of those killed were total abstainers."

"The juggling of my statement has transformed it into a lie against my colleagues in the race, which impression I certainly won't allow to stand without an emphatic and complete denial of my part. Let my statement be now clear and not twisted to meet the demands of those who hunger for scandal and sensation."

"I said and I still say that many accidents in aviation are caused by over use of intoxicants. Aviation is a game where a false move means disaster and in any such vocation the participant needs the full use of an active brain not deadened and weakened by the effect of liquor."

"Such an affected brain and the corresponding reaction and the nervous system add an unnecessary fatal hazard to the already natural and necessary hazard of flying itself."

"The action of the publicity agents of the anti-Saloon League, or the press, or what it was in so juggling a true statement of fact to meet the demands of sensation, and in basing entire reports upon my observations during the race, has created his most false and unjust impression of which I am in no way a party and for which I am truly sorry."

"I only hope that this true statement of my ideas receives the same consideration and publicity that was afforded the false one."

TIME OF RETURN OF ROADS UNCERTAIN

Measure Embodying Permanent Legislation to Meet Railroad Situation Continues Before Senate.

Washington, Dec. 16.—The bill embodying permanent legislation to meet the railroad situation continued today before the senate but with Senators admittedly still in the dark as to the time President Wilson plans to turn back the carriers.

Director General Hines has sent to the president new recommendations as to ending government operation but he would not discuss them today and white house officials refused to have any information.

Plans for the return of the roads by the first of the year, are going forward at the railroad administration. Administration of the contracts contain a thirty day release clause so that they may be abrogated at any time without great loss to the government.

While stating that the contracts are being obtained as fast as possible before the first of the new year.

In its effort to speed up legislation the senate held another night session but there was little prospect of final action until after the holidays.

Sharp opposition to some of the provisions of the Cummins bill was expressed in the debate today and tonight. Senator Poinsett, Republican, Washington, attacked the proposal under which the interstate commerce commission would be authorized in special cases to permit a lower charge for a long haul than for a short haul, while Senator Frelinghuysen, Republican, New Jersey argued provision should be made for assisting the roads in financing their immediate needs and after the return. To that end he offered an amendment to permit them to borrow from the government out of a $500,000,000 revolving fund.

The amendment is identical with the provision of the house bill and was opposed by Senator Cummins who contended that congress ought to assume that legislation soon would be enacted which would enable the roads to borrow from private sources.

"OLD BOYS" ORGANIZE BROTHERHOOD OF U. S.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—The "old boys" whose ages kept them out of uniform during the war, but who rendered patriotic service at home are to have an organization of their own, modeled after the American Legion.

Former Judge Charles N. Goodnow has opened headquarters of the "Brotherhood of the U. S.," as it is to be called, in his office here. He announced today that Senator Medill McCormick, Governor Frank O. Lowden, Justice McGoorty, Newcomer, Fisher, La Hay, and Hazen and a number of other state county and city officials were among the "veterans" interested.

Announces Candidacy

Washington, Dec. 16.—Senator Harding of Ohio, formally announced tonight his candidacy for the Republican presidential nomination in 1920. The announcement was made in a letter to Clara Hughes of Piqua, Ohio, chairman of the Miami county Republican committee, authorizing the use of the senator's name.

Senator Harding is the third Republican senator to make known his presidential aspirations.

Washington and Johnson of California, already have formally announced their candidacy and a formal boom for Senator Sutherland of West Virginia has been inaugurated.

In this letter, Senator Harding said he had "no personal preference in the matter," but gladly would co-operate in "making effective the manifest wish of the Republicans of the state." He added, however, that he would announce no platform, as that was the duty of the national convention.

GOV. LOWDEN FILES AS INDEPENDENT IN S. D.

Files Petition as Independent Republican Candidate For President—Keystone of Platform: Economy, Efficiency, Peace and One Flag.

Pierre, S. D., Dec. 16.—Governor Frank O. Lowden of Illinois today filed as an independent Republican candidate for president at the state primaries to be held next March, making the third independent candidate to file in South Dakota. Woodrow Wilson and Major General Leonard Wood were endorsed for president at the recent Democratic and Republican state proposal meetings respectively, while James W. Gerard, Democrat of New York, and W. W. Rorimer, Republican of Wisconsin, were endorsed as independent candidates.

Governor Lynn J. Frazier, of North Dakota is the Non-Partisan League candidate.

Today was the last day minority preference candidates named by protesting proposal men could file. However, other persons desiring to be candidates may file up to January 1 by petitions of voters. Under a ruling by the state attorney general candidates nominated by the conventions have until January 1st to send in their acceptances. However, the attorney general held that the petitioning persons desiring to be candidates must file up to January 1st by petitions of voters. Under a ruling by the state attorney general candidates nominated by the conventions have until January 1st to send in their acceptances. However, the attorney general held that the petitioning persons desiring to be candidates must file up to January 1st by petitions of voters.

The keynote of Lowden's platform is economy, efficiency, peace and one flag. It favors "the return of an efficient, economical and business administration of the public affairs, abolition of the numerous agencies for war purposes which have been continued at enormous cost in times of peace."

The platform further favors: "A protective tariff measured by the difference in the cost of production at home and abroad; a permanent basis upon the principle of government of all the people and not by any class; ratification of the peace treaty with reservations substantially as proposed by the foreign relations committee of the senate. Encouragement of agriculture and recognition of the principle that it is and must remain our most important industry; the exclusion or deportation of aliens who place the red flag or any other flag above our own."

REPLIES TO NOTE

Mexico Finally Replies To Second American Note

REGARDING JENKINS

Message Asserts Release of U. S. Consular Agent at Puebla Has Removed All Motive For Misunderstanding in the Case

MEXICO CITY, Dec. 16.—(By The Associated Press.)—The release of William O. Jenkins, American consular agent at Puebla, under bail, has removed all motive for misunderstanding between the Mexican and United States governments regarding the Jenkins issue, according to the reply of the Mexican government to the second American note. The Mexican reply was headed to the American charge d'affaires this evening.

The note declares the Jenkins case has taken on an altogether different aspect since the American agent's release. In polite terms it differs with the American objection to former legal technicalities, reaffirming that the Jenkins case is entirely a legal one. Moreover, it points out the American government's official position of innocence of the charges against him is not enough to warrant setting aside Mexican laws.

The text of the reply follows: "With reference to Note No. 1, 556, dated the Thirtieth last November which your excellency transmitted to the Mexican government acting on instructions from the American government relative to the case of Jenkins, I have the honor of saying that, under instruction of the president of the republic, the Mexican government in replying to this note will confine itself to considering some of the principal points in that note without taking up and examining its arguments trying only to establish certain necessary precedents in international law and in order to make clear before the people its official conduct, for since Jenkins has been released under bail deposited in the Puebla court by an American citizen the Mexican government thinks that any motive for misunderstanding between the two countries has disappeared and that the Jenkins case has taken a very different turn than it previously presented."

"The United States government says that it refuses to enter into any judicial discussion of the different points brought forward by the Jenkins case but the Mexican government on the contrary thinks that a discussion of legal questions in a matter which is essentially judicial and from its point of view is not improper or inadequate and that its ministry referred very extensively to some points related to the Jenkins case it was due to the fact that the Mexican government deems that a complete exposition of the Jenkins case is its best justification and conclusive proof of the legality of its procedure."

"The last paragraph of the note which I am answering and which insists on demanding the immediate release of Jenkins is based—founded—on the belief of the American government that the charge of almost testimony against Jenkins is unfounded. Nevertheless, the belief of the American government in the innocence of Jenkins is not sufficient according to Mexican laws to establish such innocence and avoid legal consequences; and the Mexican government cannot accept this point of view as a sound basis to remove a foreign citizen from the jurisdiction of Mexican tribunals. The belief of the American government is founded on reports received about the case, reports which, aside from the value which they might have, and which its ministry does not deem it convenient to discuss, lack the proofs of impartiality which are demanded by Mexican tribunals and consequently 'does not' constitute plain proof according to the Mexican penal law. The Mexican government cannot admit that American citizens can be tried and absolved in simple reports from the state department, nor on recommendations or suggestions from the United States instead of trying them by Mexican courts and according to Mexican laws."

"Jenkins having been granted freedom by the Puebla court which case now is being considered by the highest court of the republic in order to determine which judge is competent to try him, the Mexican government takes the liberty to hope that this case shall no longer disturb the good relations which it sincerely hopes exist between the American and Mexican peoples."

The communication is signed by Hilario Medina who is in charge of the foreign relations department and is addressed to George T. Summerlin, in charge of the American embassy.

TRIAL OF HARRY NEW AT LOS ANGELES.

Los Angeles, Calif., Dec. 16.—Eleven jurors had been accepted tentatively upon adjournment today in the trial in the superior court here of Harry New, alleged son of Senator Harry S. New, charged with the murder of Miss Frieda Lesher, his sweetheart. Two were women. LeCompte Davis, counsel for New said the defense offered would be insanity.

Thomas Lee Woolwine, district attorney announced the state would not attempt to prove New is an "intellectual giant," but maintained he was intelligent enough to be held responsible for his acts.

Mr. Woolwine said he thought it possible testimony might be introduced regarding alleged circumstances of New's birth and alleged relations of New's mother, Mrs. Lillie M. Berger, with Senator New.

CONTINUES BOARD

Senate Passes Bill for 1920 Sugar Equalization Board

APPROVE AMENDMENTS

Enforcement of War Time Powers of Government For Controlling Prices and Movements of Sugar Retained

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—By a vote of 256 to 14, the house today passed the senate bill continuing the sugar equalization board thru 1920. Amendments retaining enforcement of the war time powers of the government for controlling prices and the movements of sugar were approved, thus necessitating sending the measure to conference.

While the only disputes to be settled in conference are the continuance of the war time powers permitting licensing control of the sugar business and the requisitioning of stocks or refineries, leaders in congress were doubtful whether an agreement would be reached before the recess. As passed by the senate the bill repealed the license control and contained no reference to the requisitioning power.

In the house debate however, Representative Fordney, Republican, Michigan, declared "this embargo talk is nonsense as under an agreement of the equalization board with Great Britain, France and Italy to keep them out of the Cuban market, the United States was compelled to export some sugar to those countries."

Will Be Placed on Market

Spokane, Wash., Dec. 16.—Instructions for placing on the market all sugar held by the Utah-Idaho Sugar company at its refineries at Toppish and Yakima, Wash., except 53,000 bags recently libel by the government on hoarding charges, were sent managers of the refineries today by S. H. Love, head of the company.

NEW BOARD RESCINDS ACTION

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—An official announcement from Ban Johnson, president of the American League that resolutions adopted by the old board of directors of the league last Wednesday morning had been rescinded by the newly-elected board Wednesday evening was received today by the New York American League Club.

The resolutions asked for an investigation of Johnson's conduct as president-secretary-treasurer of the league, the nature of his contract with the league and also awarded third place money to New York.

"Counsel for the New York club has been instructed to take such steps as in their opinion are warranted by this illegal action," said a statement issued by the New York club. The statement said the action violated the league constitution which says that "finding of the board shall be final and under no circumstances shall a member be re-elected, or inquired into either by the league or any subsequent board."

HOPING FOR NORMAL
TRAIN SERVICE

Normal train service, it is said, will be restored Thursday of this week. People generally fail to appreciate to the full extent all the conveniences that are available for them until those conveniences have been taken away. It has been so to some extent with the train service and when normal time cards once more prevail on the roads entering Jacksonville, people will appreciate them much more than they have in the past—that is, for a time. People soon forget.

DON'T WORRY ABOUT ENFORCEMENT

Some of the wets have been worrying about the impossibility of enforcing prohibition laws. The commissioner of internal revenue recently sent out notice that no more applications for appointment in the prohibition enforcement service can be considered from Illinois.

The number of applicants from this state now on file is so great the full quota of appointments can be made at once of men well qualified by experience for the work. It is possible to enforce most federal laws, especially if public sentiment is behind them, and there seems to be no need for worry on the part of the wets in this instance.

FORGETTING

Talking about "forgetting" the one or two cars of Illinois coal which were shipped into Jacksonville seemed to those who saw it about the finest fuel ever offered on the local market. That's because it has been impossible to buy Illinois coal during the past weeks. It is much better adapted for local use than the coal from adjoining states, but the people didn't realize it until they had a chance to compare.

Some people have been without fuel because they delayed orders. Others heard the talk of the possible strike but did not believe it. Now everybody is saying, "We will never get caught that way again." But warm weather will bring the old forgetfulness.

WORLD WIDE PROHIBITION

Now the wets who kicked about the supreme court's deliberation in giving a decision on war time prohibition are wondering why they were in such a hurry to know the mind of that tribunal.
The action in holding the law constitutional brings to mind the fact that those who talk of world wide prohibition may not be dreaming.

It is generally accepted now that it was economic considerations as well as moral that made prohibition win. Some student has well pointed out that if in coming years it is shown that American workmen produce more because of the banishment of liquor and that greater industrial efficiency results, that foreign countries merely as a matter of economic self-defense will be compelled to adopt the same policy.

You might as well admit that a dry world cannot properly be accounted among the impossibil-ities.

THE SHORTAGE OF COMMODITIES

The newspaper situation in the U. S. is bad. The shortage is so acute that a senator who has investigated recently stated that 2,500 of the smaller newspapers of the U. S. face extinction. It is very difficult for the smaller newspaper publishers to secure print and besides the price is almost prohibitive. Paper two years ago worth 2-1-2 to 3-1-2 a pound is now quoted in car lots at 7-1-4 and in smaller amounts as high as 12-1-2. Various drastic measures have been proposed in congress for curtailing the use of print by metropolitan papers, so that the supply will be adequate for all. Many of the larger papers have voluntarily offered to hold down the size of their publications and still the shortage grows more acute. Congress does not seem to be at all of one mind about the proper remedy. Wheat is short, wool is scarce, it is almost impossible to get sugar and coal producers are months behind in their shipments.

This thing of shortage is by no means confined to one commodity and some means must be found for bringing about normal condition not with reference to one commodity but with all.

I set down this plaintive ditty in a time that tries my soul; for in our afflicted city water's scarce, and there's no coal. And the river that supplies us is a mockery that's vain, and a cloudless sky denies us anything that looks like rain. Life's so dismal I could chuck it with a last despairing yell, for I have to take a bucket and pack water from a well. From the coal mines all the toilers have departed, as I write, and we cannot fire our boilers, and there's no electric light.
And I have to use a candle that is made of rancid grease, and the adjectives I handle would astonish

SPLENDID CONCERT
TUESDAY EVENING

Given By Combined Glee Clubs of Illinois College—Reading and Violin Numbers Also Given.

Perhaps it is saying too much that many in Jacksonville made a discovery last night yet it is true that a good many were convinced that we have in our midst a popular director and two fine glee clubs, the beginning of the director's arduous efforts. Certainly every one who was at academy hall last night will agree that Prof. Charles H. Keep is a highly valuable addition to the musical circles of the city. The efforts of his young glee clubs, but a few weeks old showed most conclusively that he is a director of rare merit and has a good quality of material with which to work and, given such a combination, it is easy to see the result.

The bill offered by the young people last night contained a fine variety for be it remembered, there are a good many in Jacksonville who don't read music and to them something popular like "Old Black Joe" and "Old Folks at Home" appeals very strongly.
Once a high class musician opposed such numbers in a concert saying one wouldn't expect an elevation to reside "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star" nor on the other hand would one expect a person to offer a dissertation on the binomial theorem or transcendental equations to third or fourth graders. The writer once heard the great Carlotta Patti, sister of the immortal Adelaida, sing an encore "Coming Thru the Rye" and it pleased immensely.

Where all was so good it will not be practicable to mention individuals that it would be a pleasure to do so, suffice to say all did admirably, showing most capable and careful drilling and fine talent.

The following was the program.

BOARD VISITS THE OPEN AIR SCHOOL

Visitors Found Everything in Good Order And Are Pleased With Work of Teachers And Pupils.

The Board of Education endeavors to visit the open air school occasionally and see what progress the children are making and yesterday was the occasion for a visit in which most of the members participated. Miss Hammond and her faithful assistants are doing a fine work in the open air school and show their peculiar fitness for the positions to which they are chosen.

Mentally and physically the pupils show decided improvement while the methods used are the best that high authorities prescribe and capable teachers carry out. One thing should especially be commended and that is a mistaken sentiment on the part of some that there is a stigma or something akin to it attaching to all pupils who attend the open air school.

Nothing could be farther from the truth. That school is for all just as much as the high school and there is no reason why there should be any hesitation on the part of any one in sending children to the open air school and the sooner any other sentiment is done away with the better.
The visitors found everything in good order and were pleased with the work of the teachers and pupils. They also saw the little folks at dinner and were well satisfied that the attendants at the school are well fed. Jacksonville is well to the front in this branch of work and the results have been encouraging.

MARKERS FOR SOLDIER'S GRAVES

All Unmarked Graves of Veterans Buried in White Hall Cemetery Will Be Marked With Government Headstones—White Hall News.

White Hall, Dec. 16.—Bills of lading have been received for a shipment of two government headstones from Lee, Mass., for the graves of Dr. T. W. Pritchett and Joseph S. Pierce, veterans of the Civil War, who are buried in White Hall cemetery. Every unmarked grave of a soldier or sailor will receive this distinctive mark as rapidly as the information can be compiled. A special order is being prepared for a headstone over the grave of Robert Lorton, a veteran of the Revolutionary war in the White Hall cemetery, who died in 1833.

This is a rare distinction in the middle west and western states. All matter pertaining to the marking of the graves of soldiers should be addressed to the secretary of the White Hall Soldiers' Monument Association, or to G. R. Adams, adjutant of Culver Post, G. A. R.

The campaign for the sale of Red Cross seals is now in full blast, after a delay of a month on account of the smallpox epidemic detaining Rollin L. Scott, county superintendent of schools, at his home in Carrollton, who had two children down with the disease. A Red Cross booth has been opened in the lobby of the post-office in charge of Miss Laura Baker, who is there receiving Red Cross memberships also, and the sales are also being made by pupils of the high school. The delay in getting the work started in Greene county will find White Hall coming across with her full share of purchases. County Superintendent Scott was up from Carrollton Saturday to arrange for the campaign here.

Place Your Order Quick

If you want one of these most perfect machines for Christmas you must order now as it will be impossible to secure more machines before that date.

Listening to the marvelous fidelity of the soft vibrations of the violin, the strong melody of the orchestra or band, and every voice modulation of the great artists, as rendered by the Pathephone, you will realize you are hearing musical masterpieces reproduced in all their purity, tone strength, and detail of technique. Music lovers everywhere have been so impressed with the natural performance of the Pathephone that they all agree it should be called the actual duplication of the living voices of the artists, for in "reproduction" some tone qualities are bound to be lost. As rendered by the Pathephone, nothing is lost—not a single delicate tone-shading, not an overtone, not even the inspirational thrill of the artist.

The Pathephone is equipped with a perfect Tone Control, suiting every mood of the owners' desires, so that they may add their own interpretation to the volume, shading and expression of any selection.

styles. We ought to quit buying new clothes.

"Merchandise shouting 'buy now.' Wait for lower prices. When demand is lessened the supply is increased and prices must inevitably fall.

"We must urge the people to exercise conservation and economy and quit indulging in this saturnalia of extravagance. People have money today who never had it before and the only use they seem to know for it is to blow it in.

"One of the greatest crimes of the day is idleness. We must stop the factional disturbances in industry and increase production. If men and women would do ten per cent more work, prices would come down twenty per cent and if they would economize and save ten per cent more this problem of the high cost of living would be solved.

Statewide Campaign

Robert W. Martin of Decatur, president of the Illinois State Attorney's association, announced that at the convention of that body in Decatur, December 29 and 30, it would organize a statewide campaign against high prices. Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner of Chicago, appeared with a thick sheaf of manuscript which he announced Mayor Thompson had asked him to read to the conference. It proved to be a speech which the mayor had made in Aurora in May, 1917, advocating a food and munitions embargo.

Mrs. L. Carr Brown of La Grange stopped him with a demand that the reading be declared out of order.

"If you won't hear from your mayor I'll go into this from my own knowledge as chief of the city food bureau," rejoined Dr. Robertson.

"You may say what you like but we don't care to hear Mayor Thompson's message," replied Mrs. Brown.

The health commissioner then attacked the office of Charles A. Clyne, district attorney, demanding to know whether the government was sincere in its campaign plans or whether it purposed to continue its local "inactivities." He charged that the district attorney had done nothing with twenty seven cases of profiteering unearthed by the Chicago food bureau.

The district attorney retorted that only three of the cases, bore evidence of criminal purpose.

"We cannot prosecute on rumor or convict on suspicion," said Mr. Clyne.

Attorney General Palmer, defended Mr. Clyne.

"If you turn over information to Mr. Clyne these cases will be prosecuted and I know it," he said. "If Mr. Clyne fails to bring the profiteers to a reckoning I will bring him to a reckoning but I have implicit faith in his ability."

Follow Similar Plan

Charleston, W. Va., Dec. 16.—State officers, mayors of West Virginia cities, prosecuting attorneys and fair price committees called by Governor John J. Cornwell to fight the high cost of living, met here today. It was decided that fair price committees be appointed and that the people be urged to confine purchases to necessities.

Army of Women Organized

NO ACTION TAKEN ON WAR EXPENDITURES

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Discussion of the report of the special house committee investigating war department expenditures after consuming practically three legislative days, was completed today by Representative Graham of Illinois, chairman of the committee, who proposed that settlements for unexpired contracts with the war department be submitted to an impartial board for review.

Representative Garrett, Tennessee, minority member of the committee, replying to the chairman's speech, characterized the committee's investigation as a raking of the war department with a fine tooth comb hoping that some fraud might be uncovered. Such efforts he told the house, were futile.

No action was taken by the house on the suggestion of Chairman Graham.

CHAIRMAN FINED ON DISORDERLY CHARGE

ROCKFORD, Ill., Dec. 16.—Alison Stineorf who was to have been chairman of a meeting which the police prevented last night when they turned the purpose was to organize the "Private Soldiers and Sailors Legion" was fined $50 today on a disorderly charge. Stineorf expressed repentance and said he did not fully understand the import of the private legion. His fine was allowed to stand for the present. Two others taken to the police station were not held. An investigator quizzed the men and will submit a report to the government.

OFFERS $250,000 FOR FIGHT IN FRANCE

Manager of Paris Club Will Pay Price Demanded By Dempsey's Manager.

Paris, Dec. 16.—(By The Associated Press.)—Two hundred and fifty thousand dollars is the amount Jack Dempsey wants to come to France to fight Carpentier. M. Decoin, manager of the Wonderland Sporting Club of Paris announces that he will pay the price.

A cablegram from Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager, says he has received a bona fide offer of $350,000 purse for a "battle" between Carpentier and Dempsey in America.

Kearns also asks for the option of a percentage.

M. Decoin wired Kearns that he was ready to guarantee him a quarter of a million dollars and wished to know what percentage was desired. If he now receives a satisfactory answer he will leave for Los Angeles immediately to close the contract.

Does Not Clinch Deal

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 16.—"M. Decoin's declaration of his willingness to pay $250,000 to have Jack Dempsey box Georges Carpentier in France does not clinch the deal, unless he also agrees to the condition that Dempsey shall have privilege of taking a percentage of the profits," said Dempsey's manager, Jack Kearns here tonight.

92 LIVES SAVED BY NEW FOUNDLAND DOG

Curling, N. F., Dec. 16.—The passengers and crew of the coastal steamer Etie, numbering 92 persons, were brought ashore on a life line which was run to the land from the ship by a New Foundland dog after the vessel piled up on Martin's Point.

Boats could not make the hazardous passage from the stranded steamer. An effort to shoot the line ashore failed when it became caught. Men did not dare attempt the trip through the waters and so the dog was put overboard. Directed by officers of the Etie, the intelligent animal succeeded in releasing the rope and holding it tightly in his teeth fought his way through the breakers to the shore.

With block and tackle the Etie's crew, aided by fishermen on the shore, rigged a life saving device using a boatswain's chair for a carriage. One by one in this chair 91 of the 92 persons aboard were safely hauled to shore. A baby 18 months old was pulled ashore in a mail bag.

OFFICIALS DEBATE ALLEGED "LEAK"

WASHINGTON, Dec. 16.—Numerous conferences were held today by department of justice officials in an effort to develop if there really was anything criminal in alleged leaks of supreme court decisions. Official comment was refused but it was made clear that the government regarded the premature publication of its investigation as unfortunate. No evidence has been discovered to warrant the prosecution and it was said further inquiry into statements by individuals that they had advance information of decisions by which they could make fortunes in the stock market had been handicapped by publicity.

An attorney employed in the department of justice who was mentioned as one of the persons concerned in the alleged leaks, has been disciplined, it was said. James D. Maher, clerk of the supreme court, denied there was any leak in his office.

ALLEGED VIOLATION OF "BAD CHECK LAW"

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—Paul J. Parduhn, formerly president of the Hammond, Ind., professional football club, today was in jail at Oak Park, a suburb, charged with violation of the new Illinois "bad check law." It was alleged that checks running from $100 to $250 with which he paid his team's players on November 26 were returned from the bank marked "no funds." Parduhn's bond was placed at $12,000 in default of which he was remanded to jail.

CHICAGO WANTS DEMOCRATIC MEETING

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—Chicago today began a campaign to land the Democratic national convention. The Iroquois club has undertaken to raise a fund of $125,000 to $150,000 which will be offered to the Democratic national committee to pay the expenses of the party's national convention if it is held in Chicago.

HOWAT HEARING IS CALLED FOR MONDAY

Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 16.—Except as to Alexander Howat, president of the Kansas district of the United Mine Workers of America charges of contempt of court against 84 officials of that organization today were continued by United States District Judge A. B. Anderson until the government or attorneys for the defense again wish to bring them before the court.

The case against Howat, who with other officials was alleged to have violated the injunction against furtherance of the strike will be called for hearing next Monday morning. He is charged by the government with continuing his violation of the injunction by using his influence to keep a local strike in Kansas in force. This strike it was explained in court was called July 17, 1919, but on October 31, when the general strike of miners became effective was merged with all other strikes. The government contends that the action to end the general strike also provided for ending all local strikes and that continuation of the injunction violation of the injunction.

It was declared in court also that an official in the Missouri district of the mine workers is guilty of violation of the injunction in keeping in force a strike called in sympathy with that of the Kansas fields. The Missouri official however, was not named and no order for his appearance in court was issued.

Dan W. Simms, special United States District Attorney indicated that the government considered that with the exception of Howat and the Missouri official the miners had complied with the injunction.

Grants Permanent Injunction.

Minot, N. D., Dec. 16.—District Judge Frank E. Fisk today granted permanent injunction to eleven operators of coal mines in North-west North Dakota, restraining the state from interfering with the operation of these mines.

The judge held that Governor Frazier's attempt to operate lignite mines was unconstitutional.

Miners Face Prosecution.

Cheyenne, Wyo., Dec. 16.—Four miners of Kool, face prosecution for violation of the Lever act in connection with the recent strike. Warrants for their arrest were forwarded to Sheridan today from the office of Charles L. Rigdon, United States district attorney.

"As I read the memorandum given out by Attorney General Palmer," Mr. Guthrie replied, "it is proposed to set up a commission with power to fix wages and coal prices. One of the things this commission is to do is to go back to the mine districts and settle what are known as internal differences and disputes over differentials. All previous agreements between the miners and the operators have provided that these differences shall be compromised in a fashion that will not add to the cost of mining or lower the earnings of the men. The government's proposal, as I view it may result in a wage of 14 per cent increase in miners' wages and mining costs that Dr. Garfield was willing to allow.

Mr. Wolcott inquired as to whether an actual settlement of the coal strike had yet been attained.

"You, as an operator, don't you think you are bound by an agreement made at Indianapolis," the Senator asked.

"No, I don't," Guthrie replied. "That's right," Senator Wolcott said. "There has been no acceptance of the agreement here. Nor is there any power in the government to set up a commission which will fix wages and prices of coal. It can be merely advisory."

DISCUSS PLANS FOR HIGHWAY CLUB

Meeting Held at Court House on Tuesday Evening—Sentiment Was That Should Club of Fifty in Beginning—General Plans Talked Over.

Plans for the formation of a district club of the Mississippi Valley Highway Association were discussed at a meeting held in the circuit court room Tuesday evening.

There was a fair attendance at the meeting and what was lacking in numbers was made up in enthusiasm. The meeting was called to order by C. N. Priest, temporary president, and H. K. Chenoweth served as secretary.

The chair called on A. E. Nissen, official organizer of the association. Mr. Nissen speaks, eats and dreams the Mississippi Valley Highway. He gave a most interesting talk, explaining provisions of the Townsend bill and other things of interest in the good roads line.

Following his talk there was a general discussion in which everyone present took part. This talk was entirely informal and brought out many good things.

It developed that the unanimous sentiment of the men present was that Jacksonville should not select permanent officers until there was a charter membership of at least fifty signed up. It was decided to secure the membership and then elect permanent officers as it was felt that this should be done by the bona-fide membership.

V. R. Riley, president of the Morgan County Good Roads Association was chosen to solicit members. In company with Mr. Nissen he will do this today. It was decided not to call a meeting for permanent organization until after the holidays.

MR. AND MRS. COULTAS CELEBRATE FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Event is fittingly observed at home in Winchester yesterday afternoon with all children and many grandchildren and friends present to aid in making occasion happy one—Early Morning Fire Destroys Two Motor Cars in Buick Garage Building—Other News of Interest.

Winchester, Dec. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Coultas observed their golden wedding anniversary at their home in the northeast part of the city by entertaining a number of relatives and friends from two to five o'clock Tuesday afternoon.

The rooms were attractively decorated for the occasion, many roses, carnations, chrysanthemums, and cut flowers being used. The occasion proved most delightful as all of the children and many grandchildren were present to aid in making the celebration one long to be remembered by their parents.

Mr. Coultas received many beautiful and useful gifts, among which was a remembrance of fifty roses given by the grandchildren. The guests were served with delicious refreshments during the afternoon. The following children were present: Oswald Coultas and family of Peoria, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Allen of Chapin, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Obermeyer and family of Kansas City, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason of Winchester, Mr. and Mrs. Luther Coultas of Colorado, Mr. and Mrs. R. Gessen of Winchester, and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Markillie of Winchester, one of the grandsons.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Coultas are members of the Methodist church here and are prominent in the business and social life of the community. Mr. Coultas has followed the occupation of farmer during his lifetime and has been eminently successful in this field of endeavor. He is at present retired from active farming operations and has made his home in Winchester for several years.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Coultas were kept busy during the day accepting congratulations from their many friends throughout this community.

Early Morning Conflagration.

Fire was discovered at one o'clock Tuesday morning in the building occupied by B. Groom's Buick Garage and known as the old McCauley Hotel property, on the southeast corner of the square. It is said that the flames originated from a defective flue. The fire was hard to locate, burning between the first and second floors and making so much smoke that the fire fighters had difficulty in getting at it. However hard work on the part of the firemen and volunteer fire fighters saved much of the building and contents. Most of the stock and cars which were stored in the structure were moved out of the path of the flames. Two cars however were destroyed. One of these was a Chevrolet belonging to Mr. Groom and the other was a Buick touring car, the property of Lou Bailey. The most of the damage was done by the fire in the work room at the rear of the building where the flames seemed to burn the fiercest. The Evans Billard Hall adjoining the Buick Garage on the north, was somewhat damaged by water. Mr. Groom came to Winchester a short time ago from White Hall and had built up a successful business, having a nice display room and ample facilities in his work shop to take care of his business. The building is a three-story structure and while not damaged on the second or third floors by fire has most of the window panes out by the force of the water played upon the flames.

JURY IS SECURED IN O'CONNELL CASE

OPENING STATEMENTS MADE BY ATTORNEYS

Necessary Self Defense Will Be Plea of Brown County Farmer
On Trial For Killing of Elwood Lent—Claims Lent and Compensation Were About To Attack Him.

After spending a day and a half in the examination of veniremen a jury was secured at 4:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon to hear the evidence in the trial of Timothy O'Connell of Brown county, charged with murder.

The jury includes:
W. C. Sperry, carpenter, Jacksonville.
W. M. Bobbitt, farmer, Chapin.
David Leonard, farmer, Merelosia.

J. F. Claus, merchant, Jacksonville.
B. C. Lair, barber, Jacksonville.
J. J. Bull, farmer, Franklin.

William Fairburn, farmer, Centerville.
John Salby, cigarmaker, Jacksonville.

John Miller, farmer, Norton-
ville.
T. M. Tomlinson, merchant, Jacksonville.

Samuel Harris, stockman, Jacksonville.
P. G. Stein, insurance, Jacksonville.

State's Attorney Vandeverter is assisted in the prosecution by John Wall of Adams county.
State's Attorney Robinson of this county. Mr. O'Connell's attorneys are W. H. Hartzell, W. H. Dietrich and Bert M. Cavanaugh. The last mentioned is a partner of Mr.
Hartzell.

Self Defense The Plea.
As soon as the jury had been selected and sworn State's Attorney Vandeverter of Brown county made the opening statement on behalf of the prosecution. The general line of defense was outlined by W. H. Hartzell, one of the attorneys for Mr. O'Connell.
It was made clear that self defense is the claim made by the defendant. Mr. Vandeverter narrated the facts in a very plain way and in conclusion urged the jurors to remember that Mr.
O'Connell and not the dead man was on trial. The intimation was that certain matters might be brought forward in the testimony leading to damage the reputation of the deceased.

In the beginning Mr. VanDe-verter explained to the jurors the general facts about the scene of the alleged crime, the location of the Lent home in its relation to the O'Connell home, the distances to LaGrange and to Versailles, together with other items about the general physical character of the country.

"We will show you," said Mr.
Vandeverter, "that Elwood Lent came to his death on the 6th day of September, 1917, at his home a few miles from LaGrange. At the time he was shot by O'Connell, the deceased with the assistance of John Whitted, was engaged in the construction of a sorghum mill. It was the result of the accusation that one of the men had stolen a gas pipe from O'Connell that the shooting occurred."

Killing Done in 1917.
On the morning of September 6, 1917, O'Connell drove from his home to Versailles. In so doing he passed along the highway and near the Lent home where the men were engaged in the construction of the platform or mill. O'Connell visited a number of stores at Versailles and went to one hardware establishment where he asked for hells for his shotgun. He was satisfied with the size of shot in the shells offered him and then made a purchase elsewhere.

Returning home about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, he again passed the Lent home and there saw a piece of gas pipe which was to be used in the construction of the sorghum mill. He drove on to his home a quarter of a mile distance and about twenty minutes later appeared at the Lent home, no gun in hand, and with an ath thrust the shotgun against the body of John Whitted and demanded to know why they had taken the gas pipe. Whitted then called to Lent, who was in the yard unharnessing the team of horses. Lent replied, "I'll be there in a minute."

Very soon afterward he appeared over the ridge near the Lent home and he carried under his arm a stick from which he was pulling leaves as he walked, with a shell slightly bent. When he was within 35 or 40 feet of O'Connell the latter fired and the shot entered his arm, left side and face, and he fell to the ground mortally wounded. Rosy Osborne, housekeeper for the deceased,
as in the yard picking up chips.
She witnessed the shooting and later when she remonstrated with O'Connell he turned upon her with an oath and told her to keep still or he would shoot her too.

"Then O'Connell left the scene of the shooting, presumably by the route thru the woods over which he had come. Mrs. Osborne and John Whitted picked up the wounded man, who spoke no word except 'Oh'. They carried him into the house, sent for a physician and death resulted before the physician arrived.

A day or two later the coroner held an inquest with the result that a verdict was rendered finding that O'Connell caused the death of Lent and recommending that he be held to the grand jury that bail. He was subsequently indicted upon three counts. In considering the law in this case the court will tell you that there is necessary self-defense only when a man can show that his life is endangered. "The coroner then went into a brief recapitulation of a legal definition of murder and in conclusion urged the jurors to remember that O'Connell is on trial for the murder of Elwood Lent and that they at decide upon his guilt or innocence. Elwood Lent is not on trial here, but the defendant named in this case."

Claims Attack by Two.
Mr. Hartzell immediately began a brief statement for the defense. "My friend, Mr. VanDe-verter, has outlined the topography of Brown county in the vicinity of where this alleged crime was committed. You have been told the location of the residences and other physical facts have been brought to your attention which I will not dispute at this time. The prosecution in this case will admit that Elwood Lent was killed on September 6, 1917, and that Timothy O'Connell fired the shot.
But we will show further that the shot was fired in necessary self-defense after he had been attacked by two men.

"I have listened to Mr. VanDeverter's exposition of the law of self-defense and I object to his presuming to explain the law that applies to this case. That is the function of the court and Judge Smith will later on tell you in making up your mind as to the guilt or innocence of this defendant."

"We will show that there was no hatred on the part of Timothy O'Connell against Elwood Lent, but the dead man did have a feeling toward O'Connell because he believed that O'Connell had attacked him. That is the reason time sought to have him and Rose Osborne indicted by a Brown county grand jury on the charge that the unmarried they were maintaining a home. It will be shown from the evidence that Lent had talked about this alleged effort on the part of O'Connell and that he had made certain threats against him. It is admitted that O'Connell on the 6th of September drove from his farm home past the Lent farm into Versailles. He may have made certain purchases there and in the late afternoon he returned home and again passed the place where Lent and Whitted were engaged in building a sorghum mill.

Hunted For Game
"Arrived at his own home he had reason to go to the spring in the pasture and took along his shot gun merely in a casual way so if by chance he should see a squirrel or some other game.
When he arrived at the spring and found the gas pipe gone he walked on over the hill to the point where Lent and Whitted were at work and asked Whitted about the pipe. Whitted protested his innocence of theft and raised his spade as a weapon. Then it was that O'Connell covered him with the gun and told him to put the spade down. About this time Elwood Lent was approaching, armed with a piece of wood which the state's attorney has called a branch, but which we will show was a club.

"So this defendant was about to be attacked by a man with a club in one hand and a man armed with a spade in the other. He knew of the ill-feeling toward him. He knew of the threats and so in necessary self-defense he shot.

"After the death of Lent the evidence will show that Whitted became the occupant of the house and seemingly was a successor to the property. There was evidence by some community of interest among Rose Osborne, Elwood Lent, John Whitted and in hearing this case you must remember that the only ones present to testify were interested witnesses."

Court Statement to Jurors.
At the conclusion of these statements Judge Smith explained to the jurors that they are not expected to talk about the case among themselves and that at all times they must keep their discussion of the case under the direction of the sheriff. Orders were given that the jury appear in court at 9 o'clock Wednesday morning and the attorneys were instructed to see that all witnesses were present at that time so that there need be no delay.

Deputy Sheriff Benjamin Andrews is in charge of the jurors and they are quartered at the Pacific hotel.

AN INTERESTING PICTURE
A year or more ago when the appeal was made for the adoption, or support of French war orphans, Mr. and Mrs. Jonas Lashmet of this city took one under their kindly care. She is the child of a poor widow whose husband fell in the war and is struggling with her little flock away in France. Yesterday Mr. and Mrs.
Lashmet received a letter from the child's mother and a picture of the little one, six years old, whom their kindness is supporting. Accompanying it was a long letter of gratitude from the mother and both it and the picture are much prized by the generous recipients.

A COSTLY TREE
A day or two since a man employed another to cut down a tree. The workman was reminded that it might be dangerous to the house and he would do well to remove some limbs which he failed to do and the result was the falling tree crashed into the roof of the house making a damage of fifty dollars.

A SMALL AUTO ACCIDENT
Monday evening as Mr. and Mrs.
Earl Tholen were wending their way home to the vicinity of Buckhorn, by some means the steering gear of their car became out of gear and the car was landed on the bank. Fortunately no one was hurt tho Mrs. Tholen had a rather narrow escape.

PLAN TO BUILD SWITCH FOR CITY

Alton Men Here to Look Over Ground And Take Measurements.

District Agent Mann of the Chicago & Alton railroad with men from the engineering department, were here yesterday to confer with city officials, relative to the switch which will be built at the south side pumping station.
Alderman Chapin of the city council, D. C. Diltz, local agent of the C. & A., and a number of other persons accompanied the out of town Alton men to the site of the proposed trackage. While no lines were run at the time by the engineers, they indicated that the track can readily be built in the location that the city has planned. The track will be something more than 1,000 feet in length. A considerable cut will be necessary at the south end of the track and at the north it will be carried on trestle work above the coal bin in the new building.

If railroad usages of the past prevail after January 1 the expense of building the trail will be refunded to the city by the railroad at the rate of $2 per car. This custom has not prevailed under government control but may be restored when the roads are again under private management.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED
The following pertains to a young man of this city, a staid typing man well known in Jacksonville, and now in Rockford:
Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reid, 620 Sixteenth street, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Nina, to Benjamin H. Arenz of this city. The wedding will be a home ceremony of Wednesday, Dec. 17.

The engagement and date of the wedding was announced Friday night at a party given by the bride's aunt, Mrs. W. A. Reid, 1417 Fortieth street. Miss Emma Frank won high prize in getting the largest number of words out of the names, "Reid-Arenz." In a heart hunting contest, Miss Blanche Reid won the favor, and in another contest Miss Viva Ninemires was the prize-winner. Refreshments were served.

The serving table was centered with a "bride" made from kitchen utensils. Pink and white colors were used, the colors of the bride. Pink nut dishes were given as favors.

Miss Reid was given the end of a cord, which was twined thru all the living rooms, and told to untangle it. The cord led down into the basement to a large basket, trimmed in pink and white, containing miscellaneous articles for Miss Reid's new home.

EXPECT TRAIN SERVICE TO BE RESTORED
Altho there is promise that trains taken off the roads entering Jacksonville will be restored Tuesday, Henry Frisch, president of the Chamber of Commerce, sent a wire yesterday to George J. Charlton, general passenger agent of the Alton railroad. The purpose of the message was to impress upon Mr. Charlton that Jacksonville merchants are sincerely hoping that this action will be taken. The abolishment of so many trains on the Alton of course means a lesser number of shopping visitors every day. However, the chances are excellent now that the train service will be normal beginning tomorrow.

SECOND DAY'S SESSION OF MUCH INTEREST

Good Attendance at Tuesday Programs of Home Economics Institute at Illinois Woman's College.

TODAY'S PROGRAM

Morning.
"How Do We Choose our Food"—Nina B. Crigler.
"Phases of the Farm Bureau of Interest to Women" George B. Kendall.

Afternoon
"The Home Bureau and the Business of Housekeeping"— Nina Crigler.

The second session of the Home Economics Institute was held yesterday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Woman's College. Miss Nina B. Crigler made the opening talk of the morning and "The Food Calendar and How to Use It." On this calendar the foods are arranged as they are commonly grouped in a very usable form for every day use by members of the family. This calendar has made housekeeping much easier for the busy housewife who can check up her calendar for the day in two minutes.

On this calendar the foods are arranged in five groups as follows: (1) fruits and vegetables, which are needed for their mineral substances and acids; (2) the protein, such as milk, cheese, meat, eggs; (3) starches, such as potatoes, cereals, breads; (4) sugars, such as sugar, dried fruits, syrup, honey; (5) fats, as butter, butter substitutes, cream.
Miss Crigler gave four causes of malnutrition, namely: (1) physical defect; (2) lack of control at home in forming food habits;
(3) over fatigue; (4) wrong food. Right foods may be prepared by the housewife, but her duty is not ended until the right food is selected and eaten by her family to conform with their ages and occupation.

Following Miss Crigler a talk was given by Miss Bane on "Recreation for the Family." She made a contrast with the families who enjoy each other and play together with those whose thoughts are only of themselves.
She also gave the ladies printed bibliography of the best books obtainable for their "Home Maker's Library."

Miss Bane quoted Richard Cabot as saying "Work, Play, Love and Worship are the things that men live by." Play should be a part of every one's daily program but it is something that we very often forget. She also touched on reading, story-telling, music and family games and ended by saying that in order to get the most out of life, recreation should be made one of the essentials of our daily routine.

The afternoon program opened at 1:30 o'clock with Miss Bane as the first speaker. Her topic was "The Home Bureau." She explained the organization as it exists in Illinois. At the present time there are seventeen such organizations in the state and they are finding it a great help in making the homes more healthful and brighter.

"We have been trying to stimulate production and have seen very little about intelligent consumption. The problem is only half solved in the production.
Woman is a big factor in the intelligent and economical consumption of foods and the Home Bureau is striving to have the women realize this. In all the Home Bureau is a source of trustworthy information in which woman's outlook for the home problem is greatly broadened and the morale of the home greatly benefited."

PEOPLE TO FIGHT CATARRH WITH SIMPLE HOME MADE REMEDY

Take Pint at Home and Costs Little, Says Leading Druggist of Covington, Ky., Who Has Made Special Study of Catarrh.

Says: Inflamed Nostrils Invite Influenza

Who say that catarrh is not to be taken seriously, are being rebuked by a Kentucky druggist who has for years been interested in the study of this loathsome, yet all too common disease.

He says that the sore, tender, inflamed membrane of the nose and throat is a prolific ground for germs—not only germs of influenza, but other kinds as well.

He would only stop extending for two weeks and simple remedy made of a pint of water mixed with a half of the catarrh in the nostrils would be abolished. Really no joke for people who don't know about this simple remedy to be constantly sniffing and snuffing, blowing and hawking, when all these obnoxious symptoms as well as the foul discharge can be made to disappear in a few days.

Ask for three-quarters of an ounce of Mentholized Arcine—that's all you need and after you have mixed it with enough boiled water to make a pint gargle the throat twice daily and snuff or spray some up the nostrils, as directed.

The tender nostrils will soon lose their soreness, heal up, and be clean and healthy.

Important Reminder: Just as soon as anyone in the family gets a cold in the head, check it at once with this same medicine.

SALVATION ARMY KETTLES BUSY AGAIN

Merry Jingle of Bell and Coins Will Vibrate With Each Other on Square During Coming Days Before the Holidays.

We are now all of us within the thrall of Christmastide, in the spirit of which, the mountaineer nails his bit of holly on the little hut that hangs on the gray hill; which takes the woodsman scouring the forest for the miniature pines, destined for the candle and the candle light; which grasps and holds the business world in a whirl that often doubles and trebles its force to handle the volume of business; which makes every church, trimmed in crimson and green wreaths, resound with joyous carols; which takes the postman from door to door, with cart and bag, with many a precious parcel; which fills our various means of transportation with teeming humanity, bound for home with loads of precious gifts and baggage; and if we would, try as we may, we cannot get away from the spirit of Christmas and the Christ-child, it takes us and jostles us on every hand.

And some, it is said, recently, "Why at the Salvation Army's Xmas Kettles are not going to be on the streets the coming Xmas-tide. Oh! how we will miss them then."

Yes the local corps of the Salvation Army has caught the spirit of Xmas and the Christ-child, and the merry jingle of bell and coins will vibrate with each other on the various street corners of the square as in previous years and while the need is as great as ever, yet thru the kindness of many Ensign and Mrs. F. Sherwood and their helpers fully expect to meet every need of the worthy poor of the city.

You can do your part by putting your large as well as your small coins in the Xmas Kettles or by calling on Ensign Sherwood's home, 108 East College street or by phone or mail, requesting some one to wait upon you for your Christmas contribution, whether it be cash or provisions. Ensign Sherwood, the officer in charge of the local corps, wishes it distinctly known that there will be no solicitation, as in previous years, from house to house or from store to store. What it contributed to the Christmas dinner and tree and winter relief work must be done voluntarily, as the Salvation Army drive in March conducted very kindly by the Elks of Jacksonville, did away with all solicitation on the part of the Salvation Army for one year with the exception of the Missionary effort in the spring of the year.

There was no provision made, however, in this drive, for the Xmas dinner and Xmas tree, as it was felt the Xmas Kettles would supply this need. So kindly make your donation this year, thru the Kettles or by writing or phone.

INDICES NO. 50-1342. Ensign and Mrs. Sherwood wish to heartily thank those who have so kindly thus far given of their means and provisions and are now ready to receive any and all contributions for this very worthy work. They would like to say that they are receiving daily information regarding poor families of the city.

Continuity of Service

TO the motorist whose car goes purring along the road, there is a feeling of security and satisfaction as he senses the smooth, even flow of power, under complete control.

The quiet, efficient engine under the hood, doing its full duty every minute, symbolizes the necessity for Continuity of Service.

The titanic pumps which supply the city with water, the elevators in a tall building, the sewing machine in the home give satisfaction only when they can render a Continuity of Service.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) has perfected a Continuity of Service in the manufacture, distribution, and sale of petroleum products.

Its large refineries, where the wants of the Nation are being anticipated years in advance—its vast storage tanks, where large quantities of oil are held against a possible urgent demand, its comprehensive system of distribution, whereby the wayside tank and pump assure an unbroken supply of fuel to the transcontinental motorist—all these stand for that Continuity of Service, without which the high-gear life of the present day would be impossible.

This Continuity of Service which sends the wheels of progress purring along is but a phase of Standard Oil Company (Indiana) effort to discharge satisfactorily and completely its obligation as a public servant.

THE OBSERVATORY

Most of the estate of Henry Clay Frick left to public art will be eaten up in taxes, and so instead of reaching the public in the form of art, it will ultimately be divided up among political office holders, which is one of the highest forms of art in America.

Referring to the savant who predicted such dire events for today, an exchange bets two to one that the professor is for the League of Nations.

The Kansas quail law allows each hunter one hundred quail during the short season, and the Erie Record says a man tramped all day last Saturday, shot up three boxes of shells and still is free to kill ninety-nine more quail without getting into trouble with the state officials.

The arrival of good skating weather last week necessitated the early purchase of many pairs of skates, with the understanding that they serve as Christmas presents. Keeping this understanding alive until after Christmas is now quite a problem to a number of parents.

Music has no charms to soothe the savage breast of a certain Jacksonville man, who declares a piano recital is like feeding a hungry man excelsior.

A woman's favorite amusement at this time of year is to be begged by her husband to tell what she's going to give him for Christmas. "Is it something to wear?" he is supposed to ask. That gives her an opportunity to reply, mysteriously, "Well, you can wear it if you want to, although you would look funny." This is supposed to convince the husband that it isn't anything to be worn, only it doesn't always convince him. He's had neckties that were supposed to be worn, but they made him look funny.

Editorial Courtesy.

Noting that on the staff of the Richmond News are a Hill, a Dale, a Gully and a Brooks, a Clay County paper comments that that combination should make "good grazing for a jackass," in response to which the News agrees, and courteously invites the Clay County editor to "come on over."

And Yet Some People Like the Country.

This from the Holden Progress is another little item of the sort you seldom see in big city papers: For several weeks Jerome Moore has been down with typhoid fever. The severe weather coming a month earlier than usual, found the old people unprepared for winter. As they were unable to secure help, the spirit which has always existed in this community again asserted itself. Twenty-four neighbors gathered in with shucking pegs, axes, saws, wedges and a gasoline wood saw. Night found abundance of wood and feed convenient.

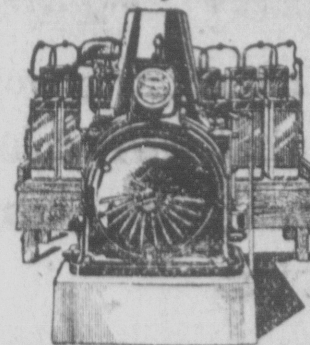

THE VAGABOND'S RETURN

From the Manchester Guardian. The tramp disappeared during the war, but statistics are now published proving that he is coming back. Harsh critics will no doubt find in this another nail to drive into the coffin of our new ideals of reconstruction. But the tramp is not wholly the result of short-comings in our industrial organization; often he is the outcome of an ineradicable trait in human nature.

The tramp has always been with us. His vocation, or rather his lack of one, is in many instances simply the expression of the wanderlust. The tramp is often one whose restless spirit would find a settled spot and job in life impossible to irksome.

And though the sociologists argue with justice that the tramp is a drag on the economic life of a community, in other ages the tramp by nature found plenty of scope to do the state some service, venturing on uncharted seas, following in the train of crusades. He did not miss his chance in the war, and now there is nothing for him but the road.

THE CANNING OF FRESH MEATS

Miss Bertha M. Jones of the Department of Economics of Woman's College Gives Some Facts to be Remembered.

In the demonstration on the cold pack canning of fresh meats which Miss Bertha M. Jones gave at the Morgan County Home Economics Institute, Monday afternoon, the fact was brought out that this method is an economy for those who have their own meat animals on the farm which are killed for family use. Many people eat too much meat at the time of butchering and then have to buy meat later. This is not the most economical way, but it has been done quite generally and it has not been until quite recently that the farmer has canned his surplus meat.

There are several important facts to keep in mind in canning; if all of the details are not carried out according to directions, the results will not be what they should. The points to be remembered are:—

1. Use only good meat, for meat which is beginning to spoil cannot be made good by canning.
2. Sterilize the cans and lids by putting them in cold water and letting it come to a boil and boil at least 15 minutes.
3. Cut the meat from the bones and use the bones for soup stock.
4. Pack raw meat solidly in the jars and do not add any liquid to the can. About one teaspoon of salt may be put in the top of the can.
5. Meat may be partially cooked before canning in order to preserve a special flavor, and in that case, add the liquid in which the meat was cooked to fill the can.

6. Adjust the rubbers and partially seal. If screw tops are used, screw them up perfectly tight and then unscrew them a quarter of a turn. If glass tops are used with wire clamps, put the clamp over the top but do not press down the other wire which fastens it tight. Economy jars which are metal and have a wire bail over the top and a sealing composition around the lid do not have to be touched after the sterilization.

7. After the jars are filled and tops adjusted, they must be sterilized. This may be done by using a wash-bolter with a rack in the bottom which may be made at home or purchased in the stores, placing the cans on the false bottom and filling the boiler with water which will cover the cans about an inch. Then allow the water to boil for four and a half to five hours.

8. After the sterilization, remove the cans and fasten the lids tightly at once, but do not carry them by the lids or try to tighten them after that, as the seal which has been formed in the sterilization will be broken and allow air to enter. Preservation of the food depends upon keeping the air from the food after it is hermetically sealed.

W. E. Bland will sell at Wood's barn in Franklin, Saturday, Dec. 20, 1 p. m., 4 head horses, 12 head good young mules, 3 milk cows, 5 calves, 16 black face ewes and 1 buck.

NATHAN STRAUS AIDS HERO

Abraham Krotoshinsky Will Be a Farmer—Jewish Soldier Who Brought Help to "Lost Battalion" Studies to Manage Land Given Him By New York Philanthropist.

From New York World.
There are few American boys, or girls for that matter, who have not wished that some day a "very rich man" would come along and adopt them and make them "happy ever after." This dream, it became known recently, has come true for Abraham Krotoshinsky.

Abraham is a Jewish boy from the Bronx, a hero of the "Lost Battalion," a winner of the Distinguished Service Cross and a magnificent specimen of the best product of the American melting pot. His fairy godfather is Nathan Straus, noted philanthropist.

The fame of Abraham Krotoshinsky is written high in the glorious deeds of the American army in France and occupies a brilliant place in that tremendously picturesque chapter devoted to the "Lost Battalion." When the heroic command became isolated in the Argonne Forest, and after thirty-seven of Lieut. Col. Charles W. Whittlesey's men had been lost in a vain effort to slip thru the German lines and get aid for their comrades, Abraham Krotoshinsky stepped forward and volunteered. It was tantamount to offering his life for his adopted country, but he never faltered. For the next thirteen and one-half hours he crept on his hands and knees, into the German lines and out again, with Hun boots sometimes treading on his fingers and with enemy air bombs dropping all around him, he kept on his "buddies" in Company K of the 30th Infantry of the 77th division played for him, as did every man in that gallant command. And their prayers were answered. That why General Pershing gave him the Distinguished Service Cross and a citation for bravery.

Dines With Mr. Straus.
But there was something Abraham craved more than that. He wanted to be a fulfilled citizen of the country in the defense of which he had proved he was willing to lay down his life. So he appeared before Justice Tierney in the supreme court in the Bronx, and this is what jurist said after reading the young veteran's petition for citizenship:

"I am more than glad and proud to make you a citizen of this country. Heretofore Jews have been considered physical cowards, but since the war that opinion has been changed. The world is proud of the part the Jews took in the war and you are a shining example of what Jewish blood can do when put to the test."

Newspapers and publications of all kinds, together with motion pictures, had carried the fame of Abraham to two hemispheres, and Mr. Straus was familiar with his record when he read of Abraham's successful application for citizenship.

It was Sunday morning," said Mr. Straus, "and I said to Mrs. Straus, 'This is a beautiful day, and I feel I ought to do some good deed before the day is over.' So I started out to look up Krotoshinsky. He lived in a congested section and it was far from any easy task to find him. But finally I succeeded. I invited him to my house for dinner and after dinner asked what his ambitions were. He told me he had been forced to leave school early. On account of the death of his father he had to work to support the family. While still young he became a barber, but he wanted to be a farmer. He wanted to work the soil, because he had read the appeals sent out from Washington urging the people to get 'back to the soil,' and he was in sympathy with them."

Attends Jewish "Farm School."
"I asked him if he had any money and learned he had little if any. I suggested that he go to the National Farm school in Doyleston, Bucks county, Pennsylvania. He was delighted and had difficulty in finding words to express his gratitude."

The farm school was founded by Rabbi Joseph Krauskopf, of Philadelphia, and has been successful for many years. It was learned that reports from the school were to the effect that Abraham was working hard and trying his best to make good. He is proud of three facts—that he is an American citizen, that he is a 100 per cent Jewish boy, and that he has Nathan Straus for his fairy godfather.

Abraham is the son of Polish-Jewish parents. As he grew to manhood in this country he saw all around him young men and women of his own race and religion who had become ornaments to the community and country and he determined that Jews never would have to apologize for him.

Abraham will have to stay at the farm school two years, and that will cost money. But Mr. Straus will see to that. And when he finishes his course Mr. Straus will see that there is a large farm waiting in Bergen county, New Jersey and near Hackensack. It is there that the hero of the "Lost Battalion" will join the great peace army of soldiers of Uncle Sam.

15 EGGS A DAY FROM 23 HENS, IN WINTER

Mr. Duni's Hens Increased Every Day. Plan is Easily Tried.

"We have 23 chickens and hadn't had an egg all winter. In five days after feeding Don Sung, we got four to five eggs a day; in three weeks we were getting 10 to 12 eggs a day; in five weeks we got 15 to 19 eggs a day."

John Duni, Box 102, Cherry Valley, Pa.
Mr. Duni started giving his hens Don Sung in January, in zero weather. He now keeps his hens busy in cold weather, when hens usually stop laying. A trial costs nothing. Here's our offer:

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be promptly refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) works directly on the egg-laying organs, and is also a splendid tonic. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health, makes her stronger and more active in any weather, and starts her laying.

Try Don Sung for 30 days and if it doesn't get you the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather, your money will be refunded by return mail. Get Don Sung from your drug-gist or poultry remedy dealer or send 50 cents for a package by mail prepaid. Burrill-Dugger Co., 284 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.

COULD HARDLY HOLD UP HEAD

Mrs. Brown Had To Stay In Bed Much of Her Time—Is Rescued by Tanlac

"I am the happiest woman in Galesburg, and I make no secret about what Tanlac has done for me for I want the whole world to know about it," said Mrs. C. S. Brown, who lives at 913 Kellogg St., Galesburg, Ill., a few days ago.

"I had given up all hope of ever being well another day in my life," continued Mrs. Brown, "and just to think, here I am today as strong and healthy as I have ever been before. Only my neighbors know what the last three years have meant to me, for since my health broke down I have suffered what I believe no other woman ever went thru and still came out alive. I was almost a complete nervous and physical wreck, had to spend much of my time in bed, and was so extremely nervous that I couldn't stand for even my own little children to be around my bed or in the same room where I was. I had headaches constantly and it looked like they would almost drive me wild and my nerves were on edge so bad that it seemed the hardest I tried to sleep the more wakeful I felt and many times I lay awake most all night long. I had indigestion so bad that I haven't been able to properly digest a meal for the past two years, and just about every bite I took gave me a terrible cramping pains, and when gas began to form I was simply in torment. I reached my lowest point last winter when I had the 'flu' and I hardly see how I pulled thru it, and for months after I got up so weak I could hardly hold my head up and when I would start to walk across the room I had to steady myself with a chair to keep from falling to the floor. I was in a pitiful condition, just about as bad off as a person ever gets and my husband had to take care of the children besides do all the housework.

"I'll never forget the first bottle of Tanlac I bought, why, it actually helped me so much that my husband said he could almost see me getting better. That gave me more encouragement than I had ever had and I kept right on taking Tanlac, and now it has taken nine bottles to give me back my health, but I never felt any better or stronger in my whole life than I do now. I never had a better appetite, never had more sound restful sleep, and my nerves were never in better condition. What I eat digests perfectly, and I don't have any more headaches. I can hardly realize the change that has come over me and I wish I could tell every person in the world about it. Tanlac has been the most wonderful thing to me in my whole life, and there is nothing this world could offer that I would take for what this medicine has done for me."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by Coover & Shreve; in Meredosia by Mr. R. B. Field; in Murreysville by M. E. Gilbert; in Waverly by Wyle Drug Co.; in Woodstock by The Hox Pharmacy; in Chapin by John Onken & Bros., and in Alexander by Frank J. Kaiser.—Adv.

STATE'S NEW BLUE BOOK VALUABLE VOLUME

An Interesting Detail Gives Record of Illinois During Past Year Due Credit Given to Governor Lowden.

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 17.—The 1919-20 Blue Book of Illinois the first copies of which came from the binders today, is the most elaborate and complete manual ever issued by the State, covering as it does, one of the most remarkable periods of the 100 years of statehood. The publication has been used by the Secretary of State, Louis L. Emmerson, under whose direction it was prepared, as a vehicle for preserving the important events of current history.

In his introduction to the book, Secretary Emmerson gives credit to Governor Lowden for the achievements of the present State Administration.

"In the two years since the first Blue Book was issued," Mr. Emmerson says, "Illinois has played an important part in the World War; it has tried out a new system of executive administration; it has undertaken a great scheme of internal improvement; it has called a constitutional convention to frame a new Constitution, and it has celebrated the Centennial of its admission into the Union.

"Necessarily, this Blue Book must concern itself with the important events of this period. An effort has been made by the Editor to do this fully as possible in the space at his disposal.

The Lowden Leadership.
"The Editor feels that he would be remiss in his duty if, at the very outset, he did not give full credit for the great success of the past two years to the Chief Executive, Governor Frank O. Lowden. Governor Lowden's leadership is responsible for the perfect unity of action and enthusiastic co-operation of the people in every activity in the war.

"He secured the adoption of the Administrative code, which has made executive administration business-like and efficient. Credit is due primarily to him for the adoption of the State highway building project and the approval of a practical plan for the construction of the deep waterway. It was largely in response to his expressed convictions that a constitutional convention was called.

"When he became Governor of Illinois, he did so with a definite purpose to lead the State to great achievements and he has accomplished his purpose remarkably well.

"Other state officers also deserve credit for the administration of the past biennium. There has been most complete cooperation among all departments of the government in the interest of the common good."

Special Articles.
The achievements and the advancement made by the administration are covered in articles prepared by various heads of departments and by State officers. Francis W. Shephardson, Director of Registration and Education describes the work of the nine State Departments created under the new administrative code, which have taken over the work formerly done by 125 separate boards and departments. Omar H. Wright, Director of Finance, tells what has been accomplished in financial reform under the administrative code. Each of the Directors of the other nine departments discusses achievements in his own particular department.

Illinois in the War.
Another series of articles in the volume describes the important part played by Illinois in the World War. Adjutant General Frank S. Dickson covers the military achievements of the State; Samuel Insull, chairman of the State Council of Defense, describes the work of that organization in marshaling the civilian population for war activity. John G. Oglesby describes the organization of the Reserve Militia which served the State in the emergency following the calling of the National Guard into federal service. Hugh S. Magill, Jr., Director of the Centennial Celebration, describes the use made of the Centennial to arouse the people to greater effort in the war. Francis G. Blair, Superintendent of Public Instruction, describes war work in the schools; President Edmund J. James of the University tells of the war activity of that institution. There are also articles by Bishop Samuel Fallows, John H. Walker, former President of State Federation of Labor; John H. Harrison of Danville, B. F. Harris of Champaign, and S. E. Young, Secretary of Farmers' Institute, discussing the war work in the churches, labor and the war, the press and the war, bankers and the war, and the farmer and the war, respectively.

Looking to the Future.
Another part of the book is given over to a discussion of the projects on which the state is entering. These are described in a general way by Frank I. Bennett, director of Public Works and Buildings. They are discussed in more detail in articles by S. E. Bradt, Superintendent of Highways, who describes the great highway system approved by the State; William L. Sackett, Superintendent of Waterways, who explains the Lowden waterway plan; Edward D. Martin, Superintendent of the State Centennial Commission, who discusses the plan for the Centennial Memorial Building; Charles H. Thorne, Director of Public Welfare, who discusses the improvements contemplated in the State Institutions.

There are also interesting articles by Mrs. Jesse Palmer Weber, Secretary of the State Centennial Commission; Omar H. Wright, Director of Finance on the new Tax Commission which has taken the place of the State Board of Equalization; B. M. Davidson, Superintendent of State Fair, on the new system of managing that institution, and by Charles E. Woodward, on the Constitutional Convention.

The book is profusely illustrated. Among the pictures, in addition to the three groups of state officers, members of legislature, members of congress, etc., are pictures of officers who commanded Illinois soldiers in the service, and other war pictures; designs and architects' drawings of the new Centennial Building, the waterway plan, and the state highway system; colored plates of the State Capitol with its newly improved grounds; the State flag; the state tree and flower, etc.

A great many new features have been introduced in this book and the statistical and informative sections have been greatly elaborated. The book is printed on a better grade of paper than has been used in former issues and altogether it presents an artistic appearance.

GET THINGS NICE AND USEFUL

Is the right motto for holiday buying. James McGinnis & Co., east side square will show a beautiful line of shoes that will fill the bill.

LOCAL USE FOR RED CROSS SEALS MONEY

Residents of Morgan County may think that because we now have, under the Glackin law, a special tax for Anti-Tuberculosis work there is no need for the sale of seals in this vicinity. Instead of this there is great need of additional funds. The tax money is used almost entirely for the Sanitarium and for the maintenance of a Public Health Nurse, leaving nothing for the open air school. The expense of purchasing and putting into shape Oak Lawn Sanitarium has been great and the tax funds are no more than adequate for the two purposes mentioned.

The open air school has been one of our most progressive undertakings and should certainly never suffer from lack of money.

While the board of education supports the school proper no school money is available for the purchase of food, an important factor in this kind of work. Many of the pupils in this school suffer from lack of sufficient nourishing food and at the school they are served with a good lunch and substantial dinner five days in the week. The supplies for these meals, aside from private donations, are purchased with money derived from the sale of Red Cross seals. Therefore buy Christmas seals and keep the open air school.

Since I married I too 'Favorite Prescription' for women's weakness, also during expectancy when I was all run-down, weak and nervous and would be nauseated all the time. As so delicate I could scarcely go around. The 'Prescription' soon gave me strength and kept me feeling well. My baby weighed twelve pounds. I could not have gone through what I did only for 'Favorite Prescription'."

LETTER FROM ARTHUR C. RYAN

Many will remember with pleasure Rev. Arthur C. Ryan who spoke in the Congregational church forum, last year. He writes his friend, B. W. Smith from Constantinople as follows:
Dear Friend:—

After four years of wandering we are once more settled in Constantinople. On the "Patria" from New York to Naples were 85 Americans who were coming to Turkey and the Near East for missionary work. The sea was calm all the way and no one was sea-sick. As we came thru the Dardanelles we saw the ruins of several towns and forts and the masts and funnels of as many as twenty sunken vessels. Constantinople shows several scars of war. Near the station of the Bagdad Railway are the ruins of several big elevators which were destroyed by explosions in 1917.
Other ruins are to be seen about the city.

French and British troops are still occupying the city. War vessels belonging to nearly every allied nation are in the harbor or patrolling the sea. The allied high commission is in control of practically all affairs, while the people cry for peace, peace "when there is no peace". Prices are from three to twenty times what they were before the war. All Turkish money in circulation is paper and is worth about one fourth of its face value. Wages are abnormally high. Food of all kinds, as well as other supplies, may be secured in large quantities if one is able to pay the prices asked. The need of relief is appalling. The Near East Relief Committee can only touch the surface. Just as winter is upon us we learn that the refugees from New York have been reduced by sixty per cent. This is greatly to be deplored as suffering always increases with the coming of winter.

In addition to their regular duties our missionaries are busy along with the relief work. The missionary opportunities are even greater than I had imagined while in America. Robert Collee was forced to turn away over 500 young men because they had no room for them. Other institutions have had similar experiences.
Congregations are usually large and the people are eager to hear the Gospel message. With our limited means and force we are doing hard to meet the situation.
We are cheered and inspired by the thought of the interest and prayers of the folks at home.
Your efforts in our behalf help mightily.

While I have found many of my former native friends, I am still searching for Garabed, the Christian orphan boy, who told me in 1915 that he would die rather than become a Mohammedan. However, there are hundreds of other Garabeds whom I wish I might help.

As this letter should reach you about Christmas time, may I extend to you and yours the season's greetings.

Yours faithfully,
ARTHUR C. RYAN.

Wonderful relief is felt almost instantly by the inflamed lungs, throat and nasal passages.
